

A BIG FIRE RAGING
AT INDIANAPOLIS

LOSS IS ALREADY HALF A MILLION DOLLARS.

The Western Union Building, the Indianapolis National Bank and several other structures are destroyed and the blaze is still spreading—Fires at other places.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 18.—A telephone message from Indianapolis this morning says that the Western Union Telegraph building and several other structures, including the Indianapolis National bank are burned, and that the fire is still spreading. The loss is already half a million dollars.

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 18.—At 8 o'clock last night fire broke out in the De Pauw plate glass works at Alexandria and at midnight, when the fire was under control, there was a total loss of a large portion of the plant. The loss in the casting department is rated at $60,000, by President C. J. Doney. There was no insurance on the entire plant. The company is incorporated at $1,000,000. Operations had just begun to put 700 men to work and the American company intended to fight the plate glass trust. The destroyed portion of the plant will be rebuilt at once.

Large Fire at Decatur, Ala. Decatur, Ala., Sept. 18.—At 11:30 o'clock last night a disastrous fire started in the manufacturing district along the river front. Soon the mammoth lumber mills and lumber yards of H. S. Freeman were burned, with millions of feet of lumber, also many empty and loaded cars. N. B. Hall & Son's basket factory and the Olive Hotel are in the line of the advancing fire and are threatened. The loss already exceeds $50,000, and the fire is still under headway.

Nebraska Town Wiped Out by Fire. Dodge, Neb., Sept. 18.—This town was almost wiped out by fire yesterday. Forty business houses were burned with their contents, and also many residences. The damage is over $100,000. Fremont, Scribner and other towns sent special trains with fire apparatus, which arrived too late to be of service. A fierce wind was blowing at the time. Many accidents occurred during the fire. The property was well insured.

PRAISE GOV. MORTON.

New York Republicans Indorse Him for the Presidency.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 18.—The republican state convention closed its session last night, after following very closely the work mapped out by its leaders. It named this ticket for presentation to the people of the state in November next: For secretary of state, John Palmer, of Albany; for comptroller, James E. Roberts, of Erie; for state treasurer, A. B. Colvin, of Warren; for state engineer, C. W. Adams, of Oneida; for attorney general, F. E. Hancock, of Onondaga; for judge of the court of appeals, Celora E. Martin, of Broome.

LEVI P. MORTON.

On national issues the platform scores the democratic administration for failing to defend the rights of American citizens resident or traveling in foreign countries, and for permitting foreign countries to encroach on the western hemisphere. The tariff and the handling of the deficiency question by the last democratic congress receive condemnation. A sound and stable currency, giving the people a dollar's worth for a dollar, is indorsed. The policy of the democrats in passing an unconstitutional income tax is referred to, and the records of the republicans in congress in their opposition to that law is applauded.

On state issues, Gov. Morton's administration is indorsed and his candidacy for the presidency formally launched. The Rhines ballot reform law is pointed to as the best enactment for ballot reform yet passed in this state. The platform further sets forth that the demands of the people in the city of New York have been granted in reform legislation. The enforcement of the Sunday liquor law and the preservation of the Sabbath are demanded.

Execute Chinese Murderers.

Foo Chow, Sept. 18.—Seven men implicated in the murder of missionaries were executed yesterday morning at Kucheng. The consults of the commission of investigation were present.

Infernal Machine in Paris.

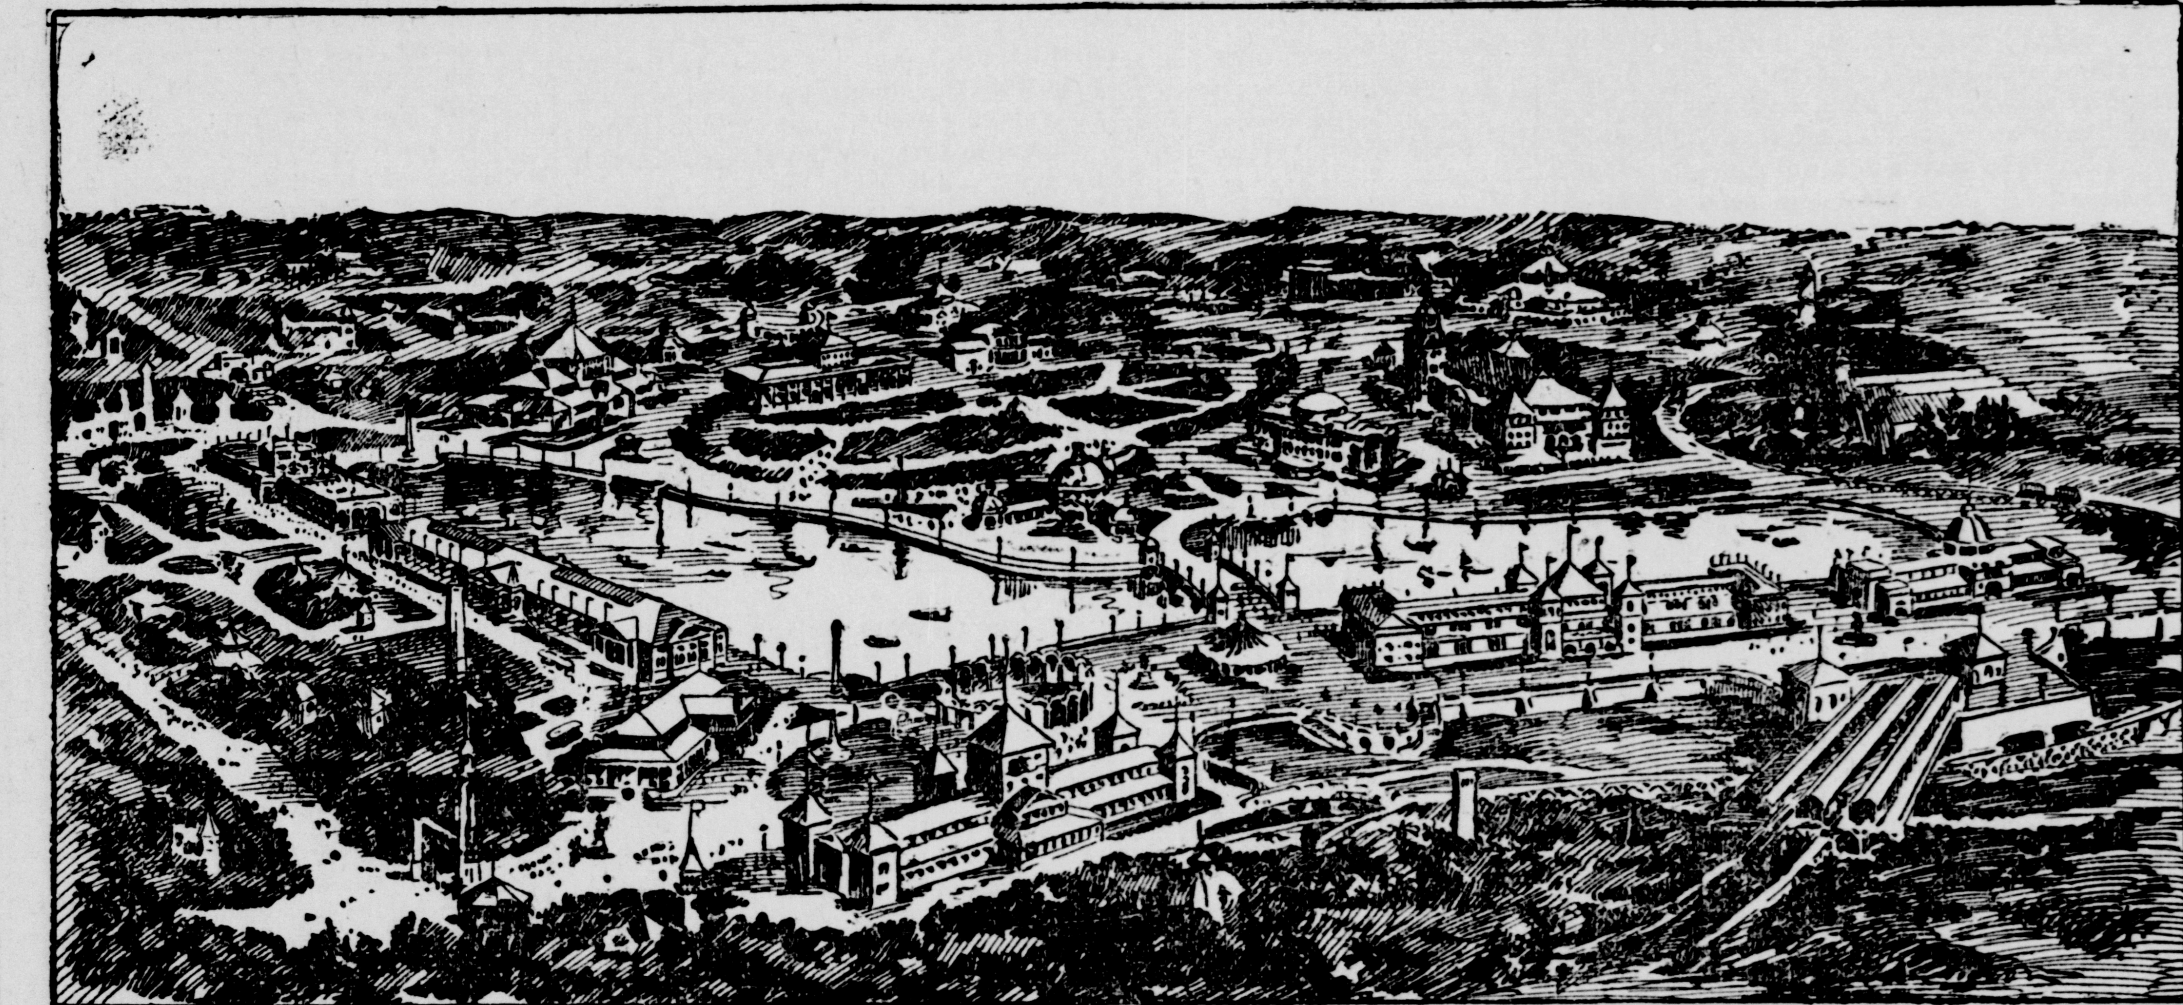

Paris, Sept. 18.—An infernal machine was found yesterday in the window of a private house on the Rue St. Denis.

AN IMPORTANT SUIT.

Venezuelan Minister to Washington Makes an Insolent Demand.

Washington, Sept. 18.—The Venezuelan minister, Senor Andrade, has declared his intention of making a demand upon the state department which, though legal, is regarded as amounting almost to impertinence, owing to the circumstances. Senor Andrade declares that the New York police magistrate, policeman and complaining witness, Miss Kloeche, who are responsible for the arrest and fine of Senor Palacio, an attaché of the Venezuelan legation, for insulting Miss Kloeche, shall be imprisoned three years, under the penalties of a federal statute protecting these functionaries.

There was a violation of the letter of the federal statute by the New York police officers, who tried and fined Palacio, to which, by a strange wording of the law, the unfortunate complainant, Miss Kloeche, who sought police protection from Palacio, is made a party through the ignorance of the New York police magistrate, who permitted the case to go on.

citizens who have suffered at the hands of foreign diplomats, or any of their retinue of attaches, and servants, may get redress through the state department, but neither federal nor state courts have jurisdiction over these foreign worthies.

CRISIS APPROACHING.

Sultan of Turkey Must Give in to the Powers.

Constantinople, Sept. 18.—The British minister's yacht has been under steam for the last twenty-four hours, awaiting dispatches for the fleet. Great apprehension is felt among the Turks.

London, Sept. 18.—At the foreign office yesterday the report was denied that the porte had accepted the plan of reform in the administration of affairs in Armenia which was submitted by the powers signatory to the treaty of Berlin.

Oddfellows' Supreme Lodge Meets.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 18.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., convened this morning. Ohio, Tennessee, and Indiana attempted to get through an order for a universal password and grip for the initiatory degree in subordinate and Rebekah lodges. The matter was referred. The Fargo (N. D.) difficulty, as it is called, was under consideration by special committee. The feeling is that the Fargo lodge will be ordered to return the money. Arkansas is trying to get the next session of the Sovereign lodge for Hot Springs.

Fraker Goes Back to Prison.

Richmond, Mo., Sept. 18.—Dr. George W. Fraker, the insurance swindler, who has been in jail here since his capture in the Minnesota woods, waived preliminary examination yesterday and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $20,000 by Justice A. A. McCusiston. The proceedings were held in the Circuit Court room at the old court house, which was packed with people, many of them friends of Dr. Fraker from Excelsior Springs and Liberty. Fraker made no effort to give bail and will go back to jail.

Want Government Aid.

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 18.—The sessions of the irrigation congress yesterday were marked with more than ordinary interest and took a wide range. The prevailing sentiment of the congress seems to be in favor of the United States taking hold of the work of reclaiming the lands of the arid regions by the construction of storage reservoirs and other necessary means for this purpose, and a strenuous effort will be made to have the great political parties declare in favor of this policy in their platforms.

Smallpox Among Indians.

Carson, Nev., Sept. 18.—Smallpox has broken out at Stewart Institute, the school for Indians, four miles south of this city. Five Indians are now down with the disease. The institute physician is vaccinating the other pupils, and all persons connected with the institution as rapidly as possible. A strict quarantine is maintained, and it is thought the disease will not extend to town.

IOWA MAN HEADS THE ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

He Was Chosen as the President of the Organization at the Cincinnati Meeting—Will Erect a Monument to General Grant—St. Louis Selected as the Next Meeting Place.

Cincinnati, Sept. 18.—The society of the Army of the Tennessee reassembled at 10 a. m., yesterday, for the second day's session. The annual address of Colonel Fred D. Grant was still the topic of comment and praise. The society adjourned to attend a reception by the citizens of Cincinnati at the Zoological Gardens. Major Hoyt Sherman reported in favor of St. Louis for the annual meeting next September, and this was adopted. Colonel Fred

A TOWN IS SACKED
BY CUBAN HOSTS

IMPORTANT VICTORY GAINED BY THE INSURGENTS.

Entire Northern Section of the Island Is Now in Their Hands—Alleged Fill-busters Intercepted By An American Revenue Schooner—Dynamite Captured From the Insurgents.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 18.—The British steamer Taff, just in at this port from Cuba, Sept. 10, brings news of a serious state of affairs at Banes, the most important fruit port on the northern coast. The Taff reports that Banes has been evacuated by the Spaniards after a feeble resistance, that the entire northern section of the land is now in the hands of the insurgents, and Gibara itself, which is one of the strongest and best fortified cities on the coast, is in perilous position, although the Spaniards have between 7,000 and 8,000 soldiers at this point and two men-of-war in the harbor.

There was a rumor at Banes and Gibara, when the Taff left those places, that the Brazilian rebel, Admiral Mello, was expected any day with a war vessel and 500 men to aid the insurgents, and one of the officers of the Taff who saw Mello bombard Rio says that there is evidently some good ground for the rumor. He further says that Mello can whip the Spanish gunboats with even an ordinary man-of-war.

FILIBUSTERS CAPTURED.

United States Revenue Schooner Intercepts an Expedition.

Key West, Fla., Sept. 18.—The revenue cutter Winona brought in yesterday the schooner Lark, picked up off Pine Key, with thirty-five Cubans on board. When picked up by the cutter, only two men were on deck, but a search revealed others concealed below. The vessel was seized and brought in because Capt. Juan Reyes could not give a satisfactory explanation as to what he was doing with so many men on board, and without any papers, and because it was thought that she was a filibuster. It is stated on reliable authority that an expedition consisting of several hundred well-equipped men left here at 2 o'clock Sunday morning for the Keys, where they are to meet a vessel that will take them to Cuba. For the past several days many Cubans have been arriving here whose actions have led the United States and Spanish authorities to believe they were filibusters. These Cubans have all mysteriously disappeared, and with them many of the native Cubans.

Capture Dynamite Shells.

Havana, Sept. 18.—Official dispatches report the defeat of 800 insurgents under command of a Cuban named Gil, at Piedra, near Guantanamo. The camp of the insurgents was captured after a sharp fight in which eight Cubans were killed and three Spaniards wounded. Among the captured material were a quantity of dynamite shells and a number of rifles.

Indiana Methodists Meet.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 18.—The first session of the new united Indiana conference of the M. E. church was held here in the Central Avenue church last evening. The business session will begin this morning, preceded by a sermon by Bishop Taylor, of Africa. Aside from the election of general conference delegates the famous woman question which has absorbed Methodist interest for three years will come up for debate and a vote. There seems to be little doubt that the Indiana conference will declare unconditionally for woman's admission to all the councils of the church.

In Forty-fourth Annual Session.

Metropolis, Ill., Sept. 18.—The forty-fourth annual session of the Southern Illinois conference of the Methodist Episcopal church began in this city yesterday and will continue throughout the remainder of the week and Sunday.

SILVER MEN UNITE.

Headquarters for the Country Established at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—The free silver forces of the United States will be consolidated and headquarters will be established in Chicago. Gen. A. J. Warner, president of the National Bimetallic League, will be the president of the consolidated body, and Secretary Edward B. Light, of the American Bimetallic Union, will occupy a similar position in the new body. This much was agreed upon at the conclusion of the conference of the silver leaders at the Auditorium Hotel last evening. Other details of the central consolidated organization will be worked out at the session to-day. All funds are to be covered into the general treasury and all subordinate organizations are to become auxiliary to the consolidated body. No separate political action will be recommended at the present time. All of the men present at the conference are of the belief that separate political action will be the ultimate outcome, but considerations of that character are

ATLANTA'S BIG SHOW
NOW IN FULL BLAST

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND PRESSES THE BUTTON TODAY.

Then the Engine in the Machinery Building Did the Rest and the Exposition Was Opened For Its Run of 102 Days—The City in Gala Attire.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 18.—At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon President Cleveland pushed the button in his cottage at Grey Gables and started the machine on the grounds of the Atlanta Cotton States and International Exposition. Then the fountain played; the flags were unfurled, the crowd cheered and the big show was open for the run of 102 days.

Atlanta made great preparations for the opening day. There are many handsome decorations in the business part of the city. A general holiday has been declared. There will be a big parade which will reach the grounds early in the afternoon. The day's festivities will come to a climax in an elaborate display of fireworks. The gates were thrown open at 6 o'clock. There are at least 35,000 visitors here and there should be 10,000 more by noon. With 45,000 visitors and a general holiday in Atlanta, exposition officials are calculating on an attendance anywhere from 50,000 up. The restaurant people have made arrangements to feed 30,000 persons.

Fend Among Georgia Families.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 18.—The male members of the Brown and Stephens families, living near Midville, Emanuel county, among the most prominent people of that section of the state, and well-known throughout eastern Georgia, have begun a hunt for one another, armed with Winchester. News of a bloody encounter and the probable killing of several of them is expected hourly. The trouble grew out of a horse-whipping affray between Thomas Brown and Benjamin Stevens, resulting from political matters.

Charged with Cruelty at Sea.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 18.—Captain J. M. McLean, a Scotchman, owner, and Captain Jensen, master of the Chilean Vessel Atacama, with lumber from Port Gamble to South America, are in jail here. Just why the men are in prison is a mystery and it is alleged that international complications may arise as a result. They were arrested a short time since on the complaint of an American sailor, who charged cruelty on the high seas.

Disaster at a Bullfight.

City of Mexico, Sept. 18.—Two men were killed and five injured at a bullfight at Sawangel yesterday by the floor giving way. Sawangel is a pretty suburban town, the favorite rainy season resort of the aristocracy.

Methodists at Albion, Mich.

Albion, Mich., Sept. 18.—The Michigan M. E. conference, embracing the western half of the state, formally opened last night with Bishop Hunt of Washington in the chair.

BELOIT MILL HANDS GIVE UP THEIR JOB

STRIKE IS ON BUT THE WHEELS STILL TURN.

Foreman in the Blodgett Flour Mill refused to discharge an obnoxious employee and a walk out follows—William La Point on trial at Belvidere—County News.

Beloit, Sept. 18.—All the men of the Blodgett flouring mill excepting one struck and are still out, because the manager, Frank Blodgett, declined to discharge one man who was obnoxious to them. Mr. Blodgett says the men were not reasonable in their request and has engaged other men to operate the mill, which is running as usual. No trouble is anticipated.

Beloit, Sept. 18.—William La Point, of this city, who is charged with complicity in the attempt to rob the Poplar Grove bank some weeks ago, pleaded not guilty at Belvidere yesterday, and his trial was begun today. The other two men pleaded guilty and were sentenced to imprisonment for two years and a half at Joliet.

NIGHT TELEGRAPH OFFICE IN AFTON

C. & N. W. Traffic Becomes So Heavy as to Make Another Operation Necessary.

Afton, Sept. 17.—The expected happened this evening when the C. & N. W. Ry. reopened their night telegraph office here. The freight traffic on the Madison division has increased to a degree that made such a move imperative at this point. George H. Ayres of Footville is the operator in charge. Agent Seales of the C. & N. W. Ry. received a car load of coal Saturday and several citizens of Afton filled their bins therefrom. Another new farm building which will comprise a granary and corncrib is being erected on L. B. Miller's premises, J. F. Bolte doing the work. Fred Kettlejohn has dug a cellar and is laying a new wall under his dwelling. Several people expect to attend the state fair and exposition at Milwaukee this week among the number being Postmaster Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stark, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Uehling, W. J. Miller and W. Sharp. The next regular meeting of Afton Camp No. 2192, M. W. of A., will be held Friday evening of this week. There was no Y. P. S. E. meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening, owing to the rain, consequently no action was taken regarding the changing of the time for meeting. Afton people would do well to remember the flag raising to be held at the Crist school house on the Beloit road, on the 26th inst., as it promises to be one of the biggest events of the kind thus far held in the county. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey and U. G. Waite visited the Green county fair at Monroe last Thursday, that being Modern Woodman day on the fair grounds of our neighboring county. A ride around the city behind the splendidly matched carriage team of J. C. Chadwick, was much enjoyed by the visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome White, of Kenosha, are visitors at C. J. Kilmer's. Mrs. John P. Powers and family left last Saturday for a week's visit with relatives at Cookville.

MODERN WOODMEN PLEASED

U. G. Waite Says the Monroe Experiment Was a Complete Success.

Afton Sept. 17.—I would like enough space in the Gazette to say a word regarding this new move by the management of the Green County Agricultural Society, that of giving over one day to the fair to Modern Woodmen of America. That it was a decidedly successful and popular move and of immense benefit to the fair is clearly demonstrated, for later reports from Monroe say that Saturday was one of the big days in the history of the association, and why? Just this, the Woodmen who attended the fair Thursday as guests of the society were treated in a royal manner, saw that a good fair with its numerous attractions was the order and went home to tell their "Neighbors" and friends all about it. As a consequence, we hear of an immense throng on the grounds Saturday, for a majority of the Woodmen went again and their friends went too. As before stated, the members of the order were accorded a royal reception at the hands of the fair management, for in addition to a mission to the grounds, they were given seats in the amphitheatre during the forenoon program and afternoon races, and as a crowning act, the society purchased the score cards on hand for the afternoon races and presented them to the representatives of the "beetle, ax and wedge." CLAIMS CASH FROM C. E. BOWLES

Nellie Baker-Brown Says He Took Advantage of Her Ignorance.

Nellie Baker-Brown charges that Ex-Postmaster C. E. Bowles with having bought property from her, as her agent, at a much less figure than its true value, she not being acquainted with the real worth and through her attorneys Smith & Pierce, yesterday afternoon served notice on Mr. Bowles to render to Mrs. Brown what he had received from the sale of the property in his charge. In case he fails to do so suit will be brought. Mrs. Brown claims that Mr. Bowles paid her but $1,000 for real estate on South Third and Division street for which he raised $1,000 and had a lot left worth $1,000.

JEWISH NEW YEAR BEGINS TONIGHT

Janesville Stores Will Be Closed In Honor of the Day Tomorrow.

At sunset tonight begins the rosh-hash-shanah, the new year of the Jews, being the year 5556, according to the Jewish calendar and S. Rosenfeld, the Golden Eagle and Leo Meyer of the Bee Hive will close their stores in honor of the day, the feast being one of the most solemn of the Jewish church. There will also be services where there are Jewish churches on Wednesday and for the next succeeding days until after the yom-bak-kippurim, being the day of atonement, which occurs ten days after the rosh-hash-shanah. The Jewish era is supposed to date from the creation.

WHAT YOU HEAR AROUND TOWN

It would be useless for us to try and set forth all of the reasons why shrewd buyers ought to purchase from our line of popular fur capes—just a suggestion. Come in and look over our assortment of styles, examine the skins, note the linings and general makeup, hear our prices, and then go out if you wish. You won't go though, for you'll see that we can save you money. This is no tale, it's solid fact. Bort, Bailey & Co.

SCHOOLS.—The patent on covered slates having expired, we are now selling 7 by 9 single at 9 cents; ditto double at 17 cents. 8 by 12 and 9 by 13 double at 19 cents. All other sizes in proportion. Tablets at 1 cent up. Best 300 page pencil tablets, 4 cents. We are never undersold on anything. Send along the scholars for supplies and books, to the pioneer book store of J. Sutherland & Sons, No. 13 Main street.

THAT indescribable something which marks our line of ladies' jackets and makes them so favored by every lady that has looked at them is after all only a happy combination of style, finish, fit and workmanship. A blending of the several features so indispensable to the perfect garment. Bort, Bailey & Co.

No matter which way the wind blows there is some good to somebody in it. We might add few people have any blowing winds the last few days. We can raise a wind for you though on buggies. Lots of them at reasonable prices. F. A. Taylor.

You needn't buy yet if you don't wish to. It may be too hot to think of fall clothing but you are always welcome to inspect our line and if you wish something laid aside until later we can accommodate you. Frank H. Baack.

In the past two days we have sold about 50 dozen of those heavy fleeced vests and pants that we are letting out at 25 cents each, and why shouldn't we, when we sell a 50 cent article for 25 cents. Bort, Bailey & Co.

We don't pretend to do the only clothing business in the city neither do we claim to carry all the stock but the assortment of fall clothing we have for both boys and men we do claim cannot be equalled; it's better than ever this year. Frank Baack.

We can save you money on carriages just as sure as fate. Our repository contains many pretty rigs that we will sell at a price to accommodate the most economical purchaser. F. A. Taylor.

JAPANESE silk pillows, beautifully embroidered in gold, at just about the price of the silk and pillow, with the embroidery and making thrown in. Bort, Bailey & Co.

LATE patterns in all our stock. Every fall suit in the house is honestly made, the low and medium priced suits as good as can be bought for the money. Frank H. Baack.

A HENNEY buggy can be talked about in any language, and yet won't be found wanting. F. A. Taylor.

LARGE line of Tiptery were so much like Royal Wooster, but half the price, at Wheelock's.

Don't forget we give a buck board with every suit for the boy. Frank Baack.

A Small Family

Could not do better than to either correspond or see us on the sale or rental of the house and lot we have facing Riverview Park. The house is heated by steam radiator in every room, and fine Mgeerange in kitchen, connected with hot and cold water, bath room, water closet, stationary laundry tubs, perfect sewerage and shades for all windows, newly papered, hard wood floor. In fact, is a model house and just right for a small family. Carriage "bus line passes the door and within two and a half blocks of the street cars. We are the boys for business. Will sell, rent or trade to some one. Lowell Hardware Co., Milwaukee street.

SOME GOSSIP THEATRICAL

"Alabama" at the Myers.

Absolutely devoid of clap-trap or catch-penny sensation, "Alabama" is an intensely interesting play and holds the audience spell bound. "Alabama" is purely a southern play—true to southern life in every respect and is a story of peace and love twenty years after the war. Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, said of "Alabama": "It is the olive branch of peace. Its acceptance as a successful play by both communities is proof that the war is over and its phases can be discussed without engendering ill feeling. It is a sermon to the American people, and its lesson after all is charity." "Alabama" will be seen at the Myers Grand Saturday evening of this week.

What Will Marlowe Play?

Julia Marlowe-Tabor's Janesville bill has not been decided upon. Manager Stoddard is anxious to get an explanation of public opinion on the question. The repertoire includes Henry IV, Romeo and Juliet, As You Like It and Twelfth Night.

Member Denies the Story Told In a Telegram From Chicago.

Janesville members of the Ancient order of United Workmen will have no fears because of the telegram sent out from Chicago criticising the order, the tendency of which was to weaken the faith of the members of that great organization in its management. A prominent member of the order on being interviewed gave the following answer: "So far," said he, "as there being any truth in the statement that the Ancient Order of United Workmen was practically bankrupt and that a receiver was about to be asked for, the statement is far removed from the truth. The order was never more compact harmonious, nor useful than now. In all the stress of the times through which the business world has been passing during the two or three years past, the A. O. U. W. has promptly met all claims against it. During the month of July our order paid out less than $560,000, and during the year 1894 we disbursed over $7,000,000.

"What foundation was there for the story? Well, practically none. The grand jurisdiction of Illinois believed that some improvement could be made in our plans, and at its annual meeting in the spring made some amendments to their laws which they desired the supreme lodge to approve. The only way this could be done was to get the supreme lodge to so amend its own laws as to permit grand lodges to exact such legislation, or try such experiment. The proposition was to classify the membership by ages, placing all between 21 and 30 years in one class, those from 31 to 36 in another, 36 to 45 in another, and 46 and over in another. The old members of the order who had been in for many years and enjoyed the advantage of low assessments, in numbers, made possible by the rapid growth of the order, and this plan was intended to give the men younger in years the same advantage by permitting them to pay a less sum on each assessment than those older in years.

"As the member advances in years he grows out of one class into another until he reaches the 40-year class, and there remains. This class was increased on the assessment amount from $1 to $1.25, and a few, a very few, old men thought this was an imposition on them. They did not stop to consider that although they would pay more on each assessment, that the natural increase of the order be bringing in young men would lessen the average, hence lower the mortality rate, and consequently the number of assessments, so that at the end of the year they will, in a probability, have paid less than they would do under the old plan. It was the act in the first instance, of the Illinois grand lodge, and the supreme lodge simply permitted them to try the experiment. My advice for Illinois are to the effect that they never had as many applications for membership as they are receiving now and all of them from young men. It is young men who give strength and vitality to the institution."

E. H. BROOKS HAS A GOOD PATENT

Station Indicator That Will Do Away with the Brakeman's Bawling.

E. H. Brooks, the South Main street hardware dealer, has received his patent on a machine that ought to be valuable to railroad companies as well as a great convenience to the passengers. It is an arrangement called a "station indicator," and does away with the bawling of a loud mouthed brakeman who shouts a word or two that no one can understand just before the train reaches a station. The machine is a box with a glass front, and is intended to be placed in plain sight in the end of the car. In it are a series of "drops" upon which are printed the names of the stations. Thus if a train is nearing Janesville, the brakeman would simply turn the crank, and the neatly printed sign "the next station is Janesville," would appear in the glass-covered box. Mr. Brooks has the invention perfectly perfected, it is claimed, and went to Chicago today to lay the scheme before the C. & N. W. Company.

FOOT BALL TEAM BEGINS WORK

High School Boys Are Drilled In Falling On the Ball.

High school boys have begun their foot ball work. Practice teams were organized this afternoon and the boys were drilled at "falling on the ball." John Day is coaching the teams a little before he leaves for the state university.

A subscription paper will be circulated in the school to raise money for a ball and for "campaign expenses." The membership of the Athletic association is being increased by the admission of the newly promoted freshmen. The victory of Janesville boys at Delavan has aroused much enthusiasm.

EVERETT MAY RUN THE STATE FAIR

ROCK COUNTY MAN SLATED FOR SECRETARY.

He Is the Principal Candidate Against the Present Incumbent T. J. Flemming and the Fight Will Be On the Question of Liquor or No Liquors.

Charles H. Everett, of the town of Turle, may be the next secretary of the State Agricultural society, he being the principal candidate in opposition to the present incumbent, T. J. Flemming. Mr. Everett was born on the farm forty years ago, which he now owns in Rock county. He is president of the Wisconsin Dairyman's association, and is serving his second term as such. For the past six years he has been one of the prominent workers and conductors of the Wisconsin Farmers' institutes, and has frequently answered calls to go to other states and to Canada. He has a 220-acre farm devoted to dairying and to raising Poland-China swine. He is an agricultural editor withal, having charge of the agricultural columns of the Northwestern Agriculturalist of Minneapolis. He is a thorough farmer and has many friends throughout the state. The two tickets in the field are as follows:

President, S. D. Hubbard, Mondovi; secretary, Thomas J. Fleming, Greenfield and Milwaukee.

President, Michael J. Haisler, Milwaukee; secretary, Charles Everett, Beloit.

The former ticket is the liquor privilege ticket and the other is the anti-liquor ticket. The election will occur tomorrow evening.

The Pickwicks.

Our talk on page 8 about Pickwick clothing is not about the ordinary kind of ready-made clothing. We do carry a few lines of the so called "hand-me-downs", that we can sell for $3 to $5 per suit. They will fade, of course, and won't give any kind of satisfaction with wear, but what can you expect of such low priced trash? Don't touch it anywhere, you will certainly be loser if you do. We can furnish you a substantial suit, cut perfectly, with the very best of trimmings at $10 to $15. Call for a Pickwick. T. J. Ziegler.

SUNDAY'S SERMON BY DR. TALMAGE

"FIVE PICTURES," THE SUBJECT OF A THRILLING DISCOURSE.

"Behold I See the Heavens Opened"—
Acts vii: 56-60—Delivered at Academy of Music, New York, Sunday, Sept.
15, 1895.

STEPHEN HAD been preaching a rousing sermon, and the people could not stand it. They resolved to do as men sometimes would like to do in this day, if they dared, with some plain preacher of righteousness—kill him. The only way to silence this man was to knock the breath out of him. So they rushed Stephen out of the gates of the city, and with curse, and whoop, and below, they brought him to the cliff, as was the custom when they wanted to take away life by stoning. Having brought him to the edge of the cliff, they pushed him off. After he had fallen they came and looked down, and seeing that he was not yet dead, they began to drop stones upon him, stone after stone. Amid this horrible rain of missiles, Stephen clammers up on his knees and folds his hands, while the blood drips from his temples; and then, looking up, he makes two prayers—one for himself and one for his murderers. "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit," that was for himself. "Lord, lay not this sin to their charge," that was for his murderers. Then, from pain and loss of blood, he swooned away and fell asleep.

I want to show you to-day five pictures. Stephen gazing into heaven. Stephen looking at Christ. Stephen stoned. Stephen in his dying prayer. Stephen asleep.

First, look at Stephen gazing into heaven. Before you take a leap you want to know where you are going to land. Before you climb a ladder you want to know to what point the ladder reaches. And it was right that Stephen, within a few moments of heaven, should be gazing into it. We would all do well to be found in the same posture. There is enough in heaven to keep us gazing. A man of large wealth may have statues in the hall, and paintings in the sitting-room, and works of art in all parts of the house, but he has the chief pictures in the art gallery, and there hour after hour you walk with catalogue and glass and ever-increasing admiration. Well, heaven is the gallery where God has gathered the chief treasures of his realm. The whole universe is his palace. In this lower room where we stop there are many adornments; tessellated floor of amethyst, and on the winding cloud-stairs are stretched out canvas on which commingle azure, and purple, and saffron, and gold. But heaven is the gallery in which the chief glories are gathered. There are the brightest robes. There are the richest crowns. There are the highest exaltations. St. John says of it: "The kings of the earth shall bring their honor and glory into it." And I see the procession forming, and in the line come all empires, and the stars spring up into an arch for the hosts to march under. They keep step to the sound of earthquake and the pitch of the avalanche from the mountains, and the flag they bear is the flame of a consuming world, and all heaven turns out with harps and trumpets and myriad-voiced acclamation of angelic dominions to welcome them in, and so the kings of the earth bring their honor and glory into it. Do you wonder that good people often stand, like Stephen, looking into heaven? We have many friends there.

There is not a man here so isolated in life but there is some one in heaven with whom he once shook hands. As a man gets older, the number of his celestial acquaintances very rapidly multiplies. We have not had one glimpse of them since the night we kissed them good-bye, and they went away; but still we stand gazing at heaven. As when some of our friends go across the sea, we stand on the dock, or on the steam-tug, and watch them, and after awhile the bulk of the vessel disappears, and then there is only a patch of sail on the sky, and soon that is gone, and they are all out of sight, and yet we stand looking in the same direction; so when our friends go away from us into the future world we keep looking down through the Narrows, and gazing and gazing as though we expected that they would come out and stand on some cloud, and give us one glimpse of their blissful and transfigured faces.

While you long to join their companionship, and the years and the days go with such tedious that they break your heart, and the vapors of pain, and sorrow, and bereavement keep gnawing at your vitals, you will stand, like Stephen, gazing into heaven. You wonder if they have changed since you saw them last. You wonder if they would recognize your face now, so changed has it been with trouble. You wonder if, amid the myriad delights they have, they care as much for you as they used to when they gave you a helping hand and put their shoulder under your burdens. You wonder if they look any older, and sometimes in the evening-tide, when the house is all quiet, you wonder if you should call them by their first name if they would not answer; and perhaps sometimes you do make the experiment, and when no one but God and yourself are there you distinctly call their names, and listen, and sit gazing into heaven.

Pass on now, and see Stephen looking upon Christ. My text says he saw the Son of Man at the right hand of God. Just how Christ looked in this world, just how he looks in heaven, we cannot say. The painters of the different ages have tried to imagine the features of Christ, and put them upon canvas; but we will have to wait until with our own eyes we see him and with our own ears we hear him. And yet there is a way of seeing him and hearing him now. I have to tell you that unless you see and hear Christ on earth, you will never see and hear him in heaven.

Look! There he is! Behold the Lamb of God! Can you not see him? Then pray to God to take the scales off your eyes. Look that way—try to look that way. His voice comes down to you this day—comes down to the blindest, to the deafest soul, saying, "Look unto me, all ye ends of the earth, and be ye saved, for I am God, and there is none else." Proclamation of universal emancipation for all slaves. Tell me, ye who know most of the world's history, what other king ever asked the abandoned, and the forlorn, and the wretched, and the outcast to come and sit beside him? Oh, wonderful invitation! You can take it to-day, and stand at the head of the darkest alley in all this city, and say, "Come! Clothes for your rags, save for your sores, a throne for your eternal reigning." A Christ that talks like that and acts like that, and pardons like that—do you wonder that Stephen stood looking at him? I hope to spend eternity doing the same thing. I must see him; I must look upon that face once clouded with my sin, but now radiant with my pardon. I want to touch that hand that knocked off my shackles. I want to hear the voice that pronounced my deliverance. Behold him, little children; for if you live to three-score years and ten, you will see none so fair. Behold him, ye aged ones; for he only can shine through the dimness of your failing eyesight. Behold him, earth. Behold him, heaven. What a moment when all the nations of the saved shall gather around Christ! All faces that way. All thrones that way, gazing on Jesus.

His worth if all the nations knew
Sure the whole earth would love him, too.

I pass on now, and look at Stephen stoned. The world has always wanted to get rid of good men. Their very life is an assault upon wickedness. Out with Stephen through the gates of the city. Down with him over the precipices. Let every man come up and drop a stone upon his head. But these men did not so much kill Stephen as they killed themselves. Every stone rebounded upon them. While these murderers were transfixed by the scorn of all good men, Stephen lives in the admiration of all Christendom. Stephen stoned, but Stephen alive. So all good men must be pelted. "All who will live godly in Christ Jesus must suffer persecution." It is no eulogy of a man to say that everybody likes him. Show me any one who is doing all his duty to state or church, and I will show you scores of men who utterly abhor him.

If all men speak well of you, it is because you are either a laggard or a dolt. If a steamer makes rapid progress through the waves, the water will boil and foam all around it. Brave soldiers of Jesus Christ will hear the carbines click. When I see a man with voice, and money, and influence all on the right side, and some caricature him, and some sneer at him, and some denounce him, and men who pretend to be actuated by right motives conspire to cripple him, to cast him out, to destroy him, I say "Stephen stoned."

When I see a man in some great moral or religious reform battling against grog shops, exposing wickedness in high places, by active means trying to purify the church and better the world's estate, and I find that the newspapers anathematize him, and men, even good men, oppose him and denounce him, because, though he does good, he does not do it in their way, I say, "Stephen stoned." But you notice, my friends, that while they assaulted Stephen they did not succeed really in killing him. You may assault a good man but you can not kill him. On the day of his death, Stephen spoke before a few people in the Sanhedrin; this Sabbath morning he addresses all Christendom. Paul the Apostle stood on Mars' hill addressing a handful of philosophers who knew not so much about science as a modern schoolgirl. To-day he talks to all the millions of Christendom about the wonders of justification and the glories of resurrection. John Wesley was howled down by the mob to whom he preached, and they threw bricks at him, and they denounced him, and they jostled him, and they spat upon him, and yet to-day, in all lands, he is admitted to be the great father of Methodism. Booth's bullet vacated the presidential chair; but from that spot of coagulated blood on the floor in the box of Ford's theater there sprang up the new life of a nation. Stephen stoned, but Stephen alive.

Pass on now, and see Stephen in his dying prayer. His first thought was not how the stones hurt his head, nor what would become of his body. His first thought was about his spirit. "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." The murderer standing on the trap-door, the black cap being drawn over his head before execution, may grimace about the future; but you and I have no shame in confessing some anxiety about where we are going to come out. You are not all body. There is within you a soul. I see it gleam from your eyes to-day, and I see it irradiating your countenance. Sometimes I am abashed before an audience, not because I come under your physical eye-sight, but because I realize the truth that I stand before so many immortal spirits. The probability is that your body will at least find a sepulchre in some of the cemeteries that surround this city. There is no doubt but that your obsequies will be decent and respectful, and you will be able to pillow your head under the maple, or the Norway spruce, or the cypress, or the blossoming fir; but this spirit about which Stephen prayed, what direction will that take? What guide will escort it? What gate will open to receive it? What cloud will be cleft for its pathway? After it has got beyond the light of our sun, will there be torches lighted for it the rest of the way?

Will the soul have to travel through long deserts before it reaches the good land? If we should lose our pathway, will there be a castle at whose gate we may ask the way to the city? Oh, this mysterious spirit within us! It has two wings, but it is in a cage now. It is locked fast to keep it; but let the door of this cage open the least, and that soul is off. Eagle's wing could not catch it. The lightnings are not swift enough to come up with it. When the soul leaves the body it takes fifty worlds at a bound. And have I no anxiety about it? Have you no anxiety about it?

We may be too feeble to employ either of these familiar forms; but this prayer of Stephen is so short, is so concise, is so earnest, is so comprehensive, we surely will be able to say that: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." Oh, if that prayer is answered, how sweet it will be to die! This world is clever enough to us. Perhaps it has treated us a great deal better than we deserve to be treated; but if on the dying pillow there shall break the light of that better world, we shall have not more regret than about leaving a small, dark, damp house for one large, beautiful, and capacious. That dying minister in Philadelphia, some years ago, beautifully depicted it when, in the last moment, he threw up his hands and cried out: "I move into the light!"

Pass on now, and I will show you one more picture, and that is Stephen asleep. With a pathos and simplicity peculiar to the Scriptures, the text says of Stephen: "He fell asleep." "Oh," you say, "what a place that was to sleep! A hard rock under him, the blood streaming, the mob howling. What a place it was to sleep!" And yet my text takes that symbol of sleep to describe his departure, so sweet was it, so contented was it, so peaceful was it. Stephen had lived a very laborious life. His chief work had been to care for the poor. How many loaves of bread he had distributed, how many bare feet he had sandalled, how many cases of sickness and distress he had blessed with ministries of kindness and love, I do not know; yet from the way he lived, and the way he preached, and the way he died, I know he was a laborious Christian. But that is all over now. He has pressed the cup to the last fainting lip. He has taken the last insult from his enemies. The last stone to whose crushing weight he is susceptible has been hurled. Stephen is dead! The disciples come! They take him up! They wash away the blood from the wounds. They straighten out the bruised limbs. They brush back the tangled hair from the brow, and then they pass around to look upon the calm countenance of him who had lived for the poor and died for the truth. Stephen asleep!

I have seen the sea driven with the hurricane until the tangled foam caught in the rigging, and wave rising above wave seemed as if about to storm the heavens, and then I have seen the tempest drop, and the waves crouch, and everything become smooth and burnished as though a camping place for the glories of heaven. So I have seen a man, whose life has been tossed and driven, coming down at last to an infinite calm, in which there was a hush of heaven's lullaby. Stephen asleep!

I saw such an one. He fought all his days against poverty and against abuse. They traduced his name. They rattled at the door-knob while he was dying with duns for debts he could not pay; yet the peace of God brooded over his pillow, and while the world faded, heaven dawned, and the deepening twilight of earth's night was only the opening twilight of heaven's morn. Not a sigh. Not a tear. Not a struggle. Hush! Stephen asleep.

I have not the faculty as many have to tell the weather. I can never tell by the setting sun whether there will be a drought or not. I cannot tell by the blowing of the wind whether it will be fair weather or foul on the morrow. But I can prophesy, and I will prophesy what weather it will be when you, the Christian, come to die. You may have it very rough now. It may be this week one annoyance, the next another annoyance. It may be this year one bereavement, the next another bereavement. But at the last Christ will come in and darkness will go out. And though there may be no hand to close your eyes, and no breast on which to rest your dying head, and no candle to lift the night, the odors of God's hanging garden will regale your soul, and at your bedside will halt the chariots of the King. No more rents to pay, no more agony because flour has gone up, no more struggle with "the world, the flesh, and the devil," but peace—long, deep, everlasting peace. Stephen asleep!

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep. From which none ever wake to weep; A calm and undisturbed repose, Uninjured by the last of foes.

Asleep in Jesus, far from thee Thy kindred and thy graves may be; But there is still a blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep.

You have seen enough for one day. No one can successfully examine more than five pictures in a day. Therefore, we stop, having seen this cluster of Divine Raphaels—Stephen gazing into heaven; Stephen looking at Christ; Stephen stoned; Stephen in his dying prayer; Stephen asleep.

LIVES ON ELM TR

Ravages of a Beetle That Is Destroying the Elms of New England.

The advance of elm-leaf beetles into New England has been extremely rapid, says the Springfield Republican. About a fortnight ago they were reported in full force in several towns in Connecticut and western Massachusetts. Stamford, Milford, Bridgeport and other towns along Long Island sound have been ravaged, and from New Haven they have come up the valley and are in Hartford as well as in this city. The damage done in the famous elms of New Haven, the elm city, is menacingly to contemplate. The trees are as brown as in the last of fall, and no work has yet been done to stop the despoilment. Last week the city council determined to take measures against the pest. Most of the mischief for this year had been done and that will be the case almost everywhere. A few weeks ago the state agricultural school at Mansfield, Conn., published full directions for the meeting of the elm-leaf beetle at the outset. Professor C. D. Woods said:

"The easiest way to destroy the beetles and prevent to a considerable extent their ravages another season is to treat the ground around the base of the trees for a distance of several yards with strong kerosene emulsion. This will not help the trees this season, but if all the pupae at the surface of the ground are destroyed, and if this is done under all the trees in a given town, there will be no beetles to lay eggs next season. The kerosene emulsion is best prepared in this way: Soft soap, one quart; kerosene, one pint; water, six quarts. Warm the soap until it becomes liquefied. Remove from near fire, add the kerosene and agitate rapidly with a force pump for five or ten minutes until it becomes a homogeneous creamy mass from which the kerosene will not separate on standing. Add the water and thoroughly mix, when the emulsion will have the appearance of milk. This should be applied near the trees at two or three different times in sufficient quantities to thoroughly saturate the surface of the ground. A force pump with spraying nozzle, or a watering pot with nose can be used to apply the emulsion."

IT WAS INSTINCT ALONE.

Curious Power of Divination Possessed by First-Class Business Men.

"Business is business," says the man vowed to that life, and so it is unquestionably, but equally, personality is personality. Leaving the latter out of consideration will throw business calculations about as far astray as those of the astronomer who does not allow for personal equations. This the successful man of affairs fully understands.

When it can be recognized there is nothing more interesting than watching the actual consultation of a business man with the promptings of his own soul's equations. Such power of consultation is not possessed by all and is invisible with many of those who have it.

I remember hearing a young business man describe such a rare revelation in an interview with an older business friend known as the keenest financier. The proposition which the young man had to present was reasonable, seemingly sure of success, and he himself believed in it enthusiastically.

"I laid it before the old fellow," he said, "one by one meeting and explaining the vexed points he raised. He ceased questioning me finally because the patent value of the proposition seemed proved so far as words go. He nodded assent as each heading was checked off. I felt emboldened to ask: 'What do you think of it, sir?' And then I saw a curious sight. The old fellow sat motionless, looking away into space, his blue eyes growing innocent and far away as a child's who is listening for a distant and familiar voice. I could have sworn he heard something which I did not. Finally he turned to me with a smile and shook his head. 'I can't exactly believe in your plan,' he said. I sat staring at him. I knew, and he knew, that his reason was convinced; it was an instinct alone that held the old man back—an instinct in which he superstitiously trusted and on which he obstinately acted. It was the most extraordinary thing I ever saw. The more so that events have proved the warning voice gave him a private information which was more than correct. The plan failed dismally, as I too well know."

Extraordinary or not, those who come in contact with successful business men will see the same phenomenon repeated over and over in greater or less degree. Call it a genius for affairs or what you will, this curious power of divination remains still as unexplained a mystery as any other kind of second sight.

BARRING OUT NEGROES.

The scheme of South Carolina populists to disfranchise negroes is an ingenious one. They propose to make an educational qualification for the ballot and then to require the negroes to provide their own school fund. It is anticipated that by this unworthy device the negroes in South Carolina can never be educated in sufficient numbers to endanger white supremacy. But the constitution of the United States declares that the right of citizens to vote "shall not be denied or abridged by any state on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude." A provision of the constitution of South Carolina fixing an educational qualification of the suffrage and then dividing the school fund so as to limit the school facilities of the negroes to the amount of taxes paid by them for educational purposes would be a flagrant and dishonest attempt to violate the federal constitution.

TRADING STOCK FOR PLATT.

The New York convention was a Morton convention, but it was a Platt convention first of all. Like the contest in Pennsylvania the struggle in New York has been for the control next year, with a view to determining the part the state will take in naming the next republican candidate for the presidency. Mr. Platt will no doubt support Governor Morton, but it is not for a moment supposed that he has looked no further. Governor Morton is not seriously considered except as a possible dark horse in the event that Reed, Harrison, McKinley and Allison are so nearly matched in strength as to prevent the success of any one of them. Mr. Platt's ability to throw the weight of New York in that direction where he shall find the greatest advantage for himself makes him a very important factor in all calculations of next year's political possibilities.

PENSION CHANGES.

It is to be hoped that the Grand Army of the Republic will as proposed carry a case to the courts to have it determined whether or not in granting a pension the person accepting it becomes possessed of a vested right. Pensions have been looked upon as bounties given at the pleasure of the government and subject to such modification, either by diminution or enlargement as the donor might deem advisable. The amount of pensions is determined by certain proofs of service. But cannot the government change its regulations? or should it have no option, having once determined a case to review it on better knowledge?

Corn has matured rapidly during the last week but the state crop report shows that a good deal has died on the stalk. Fall plowing and seeding is well along, but during the week was delayed by the dry condition of the ground. Some rye that had sprouted was damaged by the heat. Pasture and meadows are becoming brown and bare, and feel the need of rain badly.

Ripon, Antigo, Reedsburg and Bos-cobel meet the free beer tendency exemplified at the state fair by raising their saloon licenses to $500. Ash-land, Appleton, Oconto and Kaukauna, however, decide that low license will do quite as well—or else in those towns temperance people prayed and saloon-keepers voted.

Beer may not be necessary at the state fair, but nobody need be kept away from the fair through dread of rioting and disorder. The man who isn't looking for beer at the fair will never know it is on the grounds.

DARKENED BY DEATH'S PALL.

Effie M. Howe.

Effie M. Howe was taken from her newly-found home in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howe, by death last evening. The little one was but nine months old. Her mother died a week ago in Cleveland, and she was brought to this city to live. She pined and faded day by day, and last evening her spirit joined her mother's in the home beyond. Today the little one's remains were sent to Cleveland for burial. Her father, F. G. Howe, is a resident of Cleveland.

Funeral of Mrs. Addison.

The funeral of Mrs. Ada Addison was held from her late home on West Milwaukee street Rev. S. P. Wilder officiating. The pall bearers were John Bigelow, Charles Talbert, Henry Vogel, Thos. LOOK OUT FOR YOUR TREES.

A Boring Insect That Is Destroying Shade and Fruit Trees.

A peculiar flying beetle or locust shaped animal is likely to become a serious menace to the shade and fruit trees of this region. These pests have made serious inroads in Michigan during the past year or two, and they have now made their appearance here, and people have watched their habits and their modes of attacking trees and desires to give the people such warning as will enable them to prevent in some degree the destruction of their trees. The animal looks something like a cross between a grasshopper and a locust. It has a long body and light, flaring wings. From the lower part of the abdomen projects a hard boring apparatus about an inch long, black and sharp as a file. These pests light on the trunks of trees and immediately begin boring into the bark with their sharp boring apparatus. In the small hole thus made they deposit their eggs. In the following spring these eggs hatch out worms or maggots which eat the lining of the bark which conveys the sap, and thus kill that side of the tree, and perhaps the whole tree. The gentleman says he noticed a few of these pests on the trees here last year, but that this year he has noticed trees thickly covered with them. Probably few people would notice them without having their attention called to them. He says it takes the pests about twenty-four hours to do the boring, so that if the trees are closely watched they may be easily protected. But when the insect has completed its work and laid its eggs, or the eggs have hatched and signs of the maggots are visible, the only remedy is to cut out a small portion of the bark down to the wood, where the eggs or maggots are, and remove them. The gentleman who has thus taken pains to warn the public says judging from experience in Michigan, that if great care is not taken in the next year or two we will be liable to lose many of our valuable shade trees.

THERE'S REASON IN IT.

DOGS DO NOT HAVE DYSPEPSIA.

Science Explains Why.

It may not be of surpassing interest to learn that dogs are very seldom troubled with indigestion, but the curiosity of science by revealing the reason of the dogs vigorous digestion will undoubtedly prove of great benefit to the thousands of American men and women who suffer, year in and year out from some form of indigestion. Stated in a few words, scientific investigation proves, that the gastric juice in the dogs stomach contains six times as much pepsin and twice as much hydro-chloric acid as the stomach of a man. It is the lack of gastric juice, pepsin and hydro-chloric and lactic acids that causes so much dyspepsia and stomach weakness and science has not been slow in supplying the treatment so plainly indicated, and the most successful and safest remedy ever advanced for the cure of indigestion is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they contain the Vegetable and fruit acids, pure pepsin, ginger and Golden Seal; they supply what every weak stomach lacks. They increase the amount of gastric juice, they digest the food perfectly. Rest and nourishment is Nature's cure for every disease and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia because they rest the overworked stomach and nourish the body. Taken after meals they digest the food thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and poison the blood and nerves. Full size package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 Cents, or by mail prepaid from The Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

FALL RACE MEETING IS BEING PLANNED

SEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS TO BE PUT UP IN PURSES.

Suspended Horses Will Be Allowed to Start, as The Managers Will Not Take Membership In Either of the Associations And October 8 to 12 Are the Dates Chosen.

Janesville people will see a fall race meeting conducted on novel lines. October 8 to 12 are the dates and $7,000 will be put up in purses, the entries to close Sept. 28.

The meetings will be given by the Trotting and Pacing Association and the announcement is signed by H. D. McKinney as secretary and O. F. Nowlan as treasurer. In their printed matter they say:

"On account of the great number of horses and owners suspended, we have concluded—for this meeting only—not to take membership with either the American or National Association and it is for this reason that we make the condition 'money to accompany your nomination.' We notice that meetings have been abandoned for the reason, as claimed, that so many horses are suspended that the races might not fill. What the parties having stables of horses want is and opportunity to engage them, so we trust the fortunate owner will concede the justice of giving the less fortunate horsemen an opportunity to try and earn money to release themselves from their burden of suspension, and we hope, from both the non-suspended and the suspended, to receive entries enough to insure a good meeting. No entry will be received from any party under expulsion by either the American or National Association."

Entry Fee Is Graded.

The entry fee will be 5 percent of the purse payable when the entry is made; 2½ percent payable on or before 7 p. m., the day preceding the races; making 7½ percent to starters and 2½ percent additional from money winners. Should any class fail to fill, the nominator may start his horse in the class next faster, and in making up the program the classes will be so arranged as to give the horses an opportunity to get two starts during the meeting. The program is as follows.

TROTTING CLASSES.

2:40 class.....	purse $500
2:25 class.....	purse 500
2:15 class.....	purse 500
2:05 class.....	purse 500
2:00 class.....	purse 500
2:00 class.....	purse 500
Free for all.....	purse 500

PACING CLASSES.

2:25 class.....	purse $500
2:15 class.....	purse 500
2:05 class.....	purse 500
2:00 class.....	purse 500
Free for all.....	purse 500

Other conditions are as follows: The American Trotting Association rules will govern the meeting; the distance rules of 1893 will be in force; money will be divided 50, 25, 15, and 10 percent; all races will be three in five heats of a mile each; a horse distancing the field can get but first money only; stalls will be furnished to entered horses free of charge, but for all others a fee of two dollars each will be charged; five to enter and three to start.

LIQUOR CASES SET FOR TRIAL

Two Appeals to the Municipal Court Are Given Dates.

Ellen Shafer, of Orfordville, will be tried in the municipal court on the charge of selling liquor without a license, on September 23 at 9 a. m., Judge Phelps sitting that day when the case came before him. The action is an appeal from Justice George Hembohl's court, where Ellen was found guilty.

Frank Nelson, who was convicted of a similar offense at Evansville, has also appealed, and Judge Phelps set September 24 at 10 o'clock a. m. as the time for his trial.

John Riley, the man caught in the act of burglarizing John Burger's meat market at Beloit will answer to in the municipal court on an information charging him with burglary, on September 27.

SUPPOSED DEAD MAN WAS ALIVE

Turnkey North's Life Saving Expedition Did Not Rescue Anyone.

The river bank between the jail and the pumping station was lined with people at 6:30 o'clock last night, who loudly proclaimed that a man was drowning. Turnkey Ray North jumped into a boat and started to the rescue, but just before he reached the supposed victim, the latter got up and calmly walked ashore.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS.

Hot—Thermometers reached 89 today.

Tired—Even the corn growers are tired of this weather.

Odd Fellows—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, will meet in their hall tonight.

Train Late—This morning's vestibule pulled into the city twenty minutes late.

Masonic—Janesville chapter, Order Eastern Star will meet at Masonic hall tonight.

Concert—The Imperial band will give a concert in the court house park tomorrow night.

Rally—The temperance rally, at Good Templars' hall tonight is open to the public, and all are invited.

Peaches—Peaches arrived in the city today by the wagon loads and local grocers were well supplied.

Banquet Served—Janesville people expect to attend a banquet given by the Chi Psi at Milwaukee Friday night.

Buy Stock—E. P. Wixom is spending the week at the state fair, with the view of purchasing blooded live stock.

LUCKY—As soon as the fruit shipments begin to slack up, the express companies fall back upon the fish and oyster trade.

Block Walks—In spite of Chief Acheson's order, local merchants seem to monopolize the side walks as much as ever.

Still Study—A number of young ladies who had finished their work in the high school are now taking the new post graduate course.

Colic—A farmer's horse, hitched to a buggy, had a touch of the colic this morning, in front of the Bee Hive, and laid down, breaking the thrills.

Bull Fighter—A well known young Janesville girl has been taking part in Sam T. Jack's "Bull Fighting Company" during the past week.

At The Fair—The St. Paul railroad company sold fifty-five tickets to Janesville people who took the early train for Milwaukee this morning.

Moved Here—Rev. Richard Miller, the former Congregational pastor at Milton, has purchased a house in Janesville, and will occupy it this week.

Surprised—Miss Anna McCue was most pleasantly surprised by a number of friends last evening at her home on Fifth avenue and Walker streets.

Go Home—A good sized delegation of Knights Templars who reside near Milton Junction, passed through the city last evening on their way home from Boston.

Bitten—Bennie Vankirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Vankirk, of the town of Center, had his hand bitten by a horse yesterday, the wounds inflicted being quite painful.

Small Pay—Rev. A. E. Robb, the colored evangelist, preached at the Corn Exchange square last night, but his collection only aggregated 68 cents. He will seek a new field.

Musical—Huyke's orchestra of seven pieces has been engaged at the opera house during the coming season. They will give one-half hour concerts before each performance.

Seminary—The Evansville Seminary roll is slowly but surely lengthening. The grounds have been put in good shape and repairs on walks and fences made where they were needed.

Fish—A box of salmon arrived in the city yesterday from Seattle consigned to a local butcher. The bill for the fish amounted to $2.15 while the express charges were $3.18, so he refused the shipment.

Kicked—A first ward young lady who rented a wheel of a local dealer, managed to break the machine in three different places, and didn't like the idea of paying a dollar for her fun.

Horses—A. F. Phillips and W. Hadden went to the state fair at Milwaukee today. Both gentlemen have a number of horses to exhibit, Mr. Phillips' lot being driving animals, while Mr. Hadden's are imported stock.

Reception—The reception tendered Surgeon General Whiting and E. O. Kimberly, the "soldier singer," will be given at Post hall tonight. Mr. Kimberly has prepared a paper on the 29th encampment, which he will read tonight. He will also have his medal on exhibition.

Incorporate—The Janesville shoe company filed articles of incorporation in the office of the state secretary yesterday. The company has a capital stock of $5,000 and the incorporators are: James Connors, J. L. Mahoney and Isaac F. Connors.

Mrs. Julia Brozman complains that her enemies have circulated false stories about her that have resulted in breaking up her home. The fact that she got her sewing done cheaper by a special arrangement, she insists is nobody's business, and is no reflection upon her.

Races—Four Janesville horses are entered in the race at the state fair today. E. F. Carpenter names Dolly H. in the 2:18 trotting class and Dan Phallamont in the 2:24 class for trotters, while H. D. McKinney nominated Coupon and G. W. Howe in the same class with Dan.

We don't ask anything but honest judgment on our line of ladies' jackets; all we expect or desire is that you satisfy yourself by an inspection as to whether you can find better values in Janesville than we show. Our styles are up to date, finish and fit are perfect, materials the newest and from the best mills. Our selling prices are always down. Bort, Bailey & Co.

WATER COMPANY SEEKS A HEARING

E. M. HYZER WISHES TO ADDRESS ALDERMEN.

Not Since The Case Was Begun, He Declares, Has the Water Company's Side of the Matter Been Given a Hearing By the Common Council.

A hearing will be given to Attorney E. M. Hyzer of the water company, in a few days by members of the water committee. This is in consequence of a meeting between Mr. Hyzer, Mayor Baines and Alderman Heddies.

Mr. Hyzer suggested to the representatives of the city that at no time during the suit had he been given a hearing. Several times a meeting had been arranged but nothing had come of it. He had prepared a report but had been given no opportunity to present it.

Mayor Baines and Alderman Heddies were heartily in favor of affording Mr. Hyzer all the opportunity desired. In the course of the talk arbitration was suggested, but nothing looking toward a settlement was outlined.

Attorney Hyzer while not discussing the arbitration question, however, said the water company would be glad to afford Captain Edward Ruge, or any man the city should name, every facility for making an estimate on the bona fide cost of the works.

"If the committee arranges for a hearing will the water company be prepared to make a statement showing the rock bottom price at which the city can buy the works?" he was asked.

"Before I draw up anything for formal presentation to the council, of course," said Mr. Hyzer, "I should be compelled to consult with the other stock holders and therefore cannot say positively what would be presented."

STEVENS-BECK WEDDING OCT. 1.

Cards are Out For the Marriage of a Popular Janesville Young Man.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Jeanette Margaret Beck of Harvard, to Eugene Stevens of this city. The groom is the junior partner in the Janesville Mattress Works, but formerly lived in Harvard. The wedding takes place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Beck, Tuesday evening, October 1, at 9 o'clock. George King and Frank E. Sanner of this city, will be ushers.

MADE ONE AT THE ALTAR.

Riley-Warden.

The wedding of Miss Rosa Warden and J. B. Riley, both of this city, occurred at St. Patrick's church, at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The ceremony was performed by Dean McGinnity. T. J. Riley of this city, a brother of the groom, acted as best man, while Miss Rosa Riley, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid. After the ceremony a tempting breakfast was served at the home of the groom's father, John Riley, on South Franklin street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Riley left on the noon train for a trip to Milwaukee and Chicago. Mr. Riley is well known in this city, being employed on the Northwestern road, while the bride is a young lady who has a host of friends. On their return home they will go to housekeeping on Holmes street.

DELAY IN THE WORK ON METALLIC LINES

TELEPHONE CREW CALLED AWAY FROM JANESVILLE.

Only Two Miles of Wire Was Needed to Connect the Bower City With the World, But there the Company Stopped—Complete the Work Later On.

Two miles of wire would connect Janesville's long distance telephones with the world.

But there's a hitch.

The entire line of the metallic circuit has been completed, with this exception between Janesville and Chicago and these two miles are almost inside the city limits. The "missing link" is the line passing the line passing the State School for the Blind. The poles are all in position and the wire is on hand, but just why there are no men to do the work does not seem to be fully understood.

The crew that were here, finished all the other work and had just got nicely started filling up the gap between the Janesville line and the one running south when orders came for them to knock off and go to LaCrosse.

They had rather a slow job of it putting in the poles, as the holes near the institute had to be dug in the solid rock, but they had completed that part of it, and expected to push the wire stringing rapidly when the orders to quit came.

The La Crosse system needed attention immediately, and it is thought that the circuit in this part of the state will be finished up as soon as the work at that place is completed. Three tons of wire are here to be used for that purpose.

Baseball Up to Date.

The mighty Casey went to a "bal masque" last night, attired in his baseball uniform. The "ball" was "swift." Casey, however, made a "safe hit" in the "right field" (among the girls), and later a "home run" (with one of them). The "visitors" (other men) declared his "strike" "foul," but Casey insisted that it was "fair" (the girl), and he was not "thrown out" (of the house), as he didn't get "off his base." His "speed" (in getting acquainted) was favorably commented upon, and he "went home" after "the game," declaring to himself that he had "broken the record" at "fair catches" that night.

New Consumption Cure.

Medical authorities in Europe are discussing a new serum for the cure of consumption, for which, as usual, great claims are made. So far the records of its use show at least that it deserves a trial. It is related that in eighty-three cases great improvement took place if cures were not made. That is quite as much as could reasonably be expected of any remedy.

A NOBLE LIFE

SPENT FOR AND WITH SUFFERING WOMEN.

A Life's Work Perpetuated through a Faithful Daughter, and Records of Priceless Value.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

What a vast amount of misery and suffering has been prevented by the clear-headed foresight of one noble woman! She had struggled, labored, and sacrificed for the welfare of her sex.

The eyes of the women of the world were upon her.

As she recalled the past, and tried to penetrate the future, a smile of supreme satisfaction passed over her honest face as she remembered that her life's work would be perpetuated.

The room in which she sat contained hundreds of volumes of records; and, turning to her daughter, she said,—

"My daughter, this room, as you well know, contains the records of my life's work, in which for many years you have so diligently assisted me.

"By earnest application you have compassed my methods; and it is a happiness to think that when I leave, the glorious work will, through you, go on.

"The mission is a noble one. Do as I have done: never permit a woman's appeal to go unheeded.

"These records tell of every case ever submitted to me; and it is my wish that the facts they contain shall in time prove a much-needed education to the women of the world."

Thus did Lydia E. Pinkham hand over to her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Pinkham, what may be termed the salvation of her sex; and that wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which all druggists consider as standard as flour, goes on redeeming hundreds of women from the fearful consequences of female diseases.

of our success lies in the fact that we never attempt to deceive the public. We are not tricky. When we advertise we say what we mean and mean what we say. Every bargain advertised by us is warranted to be a bargain, and exactly what we say it is. Furthermore, we make it a point to have a sufficient quantity of such goods to supply all comers. The common excuse, "Sorry, but they are all sold," or "We are just out of them, but here is something just as good," will not be made at our store. Buying all goods in large quantities, and selling at the closest possible margin, we are today the cheapest house in the city.

in a questionable company is not cheap at any price.

is worthless unless it is backed by an ample reserve of cash.

has much in common with banking. Reliability is what you pay for.

in the companies I represent meets all these requirements.

Definitions !

From the "Dry Goods Economist," New York, applicable to the

NEW DRESS FABRICS

And with which you can become better acquainted by a visit to the dress goods department—where prices are not high.

: : Now on the Counters

ARMURE—Any fancy weave may be called an Armure, the effect being one of weave and not of color.

BOUCLE (from the French boucle)—A lock of hair, implying similar effects on a fabric's surface.

BOURETTE—Rough threads appearing in lines, straight or broken.

HARLEQUIN CHECKS—Those of three or more distinct colors.

IRIDESCENT—Rainbow and shot color effects.

MELANGE—Mixed. Applied to Woolen goods woven in two colors.

NATTE—Tressed or basket weave. Goods woven into small checks in the same or in different colors, giving the goods the appearance of being braided.

: : Out of Today

ANTIQUE—Applied to some fabrics made in former centuries, and for which you will have to look elsewhere as we show only '95 ideas.

Pattern Dresses—Novelties in a large array.
